

Compendium of Seashells. A color Guide to More than 4,200 of the Worlds Marine Shells

All categories of marine shells are described and illustrated, including individual color photographs, and geographical and ecological information on 80 species of cowries, 334 cones, 132 volutes, 140 scallops, helmets and many others. Thousands of examples from all over the world are included; from Athens to Zanzibar; New England to Alaska; for instance, 900 species from the Philippines, 720 from Australia and 400 from the eastern United States alone.
