

SILVER HAWK A Warriors Pride (SILVER HAWK Warrior Series Book 3)

Before Joseph Silver Hawk's mother died, she wanted him to get to know his father and his identical twin brother. A tragedy sends him there but returning to the Indian reservation won't be easy. . He was raised in Queens, New York and that's what he's familiar with. John Stands Proud, his father, spent 13 years in prison. Seth Lone Wolf, his brother, lived on the reservation all his life and doesn't want anything to do with Joseph. Can they live in the same house to try and honor her last wish? Aside from the fact that they don't know one another, Joseph struggles as a recovering addict from drug and alcohol abuse. He suffers from reoccurring nightmares that won't allow him to sleep at night. Can he return and actually be a part of his family? If you enjoyed A Warriors Pride, be sure to continue reading about Joseph Silver Hawk in A Warriors Heart / Juanitas Journal (Volume 4) of the SILVER HAWK series.
