

Bug Eyed Monsters

THEY CAME FROM... THE SEA - a huge crab and a giant scorpion, ancient foes intent on battle, and woe betide anything or anyone who gets in their way. THE SANDS - deadly beetles, each bigger than a man, swarming and frenzied in defense of an ancient temple. SPACE - a mutated spider threatens the ISS. ABOVE - a plasmoid blob attaches itself to a weather ballon and on reaching earth, starts to feed. BEYOND - a giant invisible beast threatens post war London as it comes up the Thames towards Westminster. BELOW - giant scuttling Isopods swarm out of the depths bent on feeding and mayhem. All of this, and more in a new collection of stories from William Meikle. They come. We fight.
