

Exalted Aspect Book Water

The Ebon Offspring of Daanad Sailors, spiritualists and businessmen without compare, the Aspects Water are the tidal vortices of the Dragon-Blooded host. Yet bureaucrats and sailors do far more than trade at foreign ports to increase the wealth of the Dynasty. With their skill at business, their eagle and their mastery of the waves, the Children of Daanad are bookkeepers and investigators, endless fonts of secrets and designs for Creation. The Drowning Hands of the Dragon-Blooded Aspect Book: Water is the fourth Aspect Book for Exalted series detailing the different types of Terrestrial Exalted. It tells stories of five Caste members, from those who have just graduated from school to the plans of the mighty Peleps Deled. This book provides the magical powers, rules and artifacts that Water-Aspected characters need to claim their roles as masters of trade and subterfuge.
