

Collected Essays (Vintage Classics)

Widely read for both his philosophical novels and his espionage tales, the author of The End of the Affair and Our Man in Havana was also a skilled and insightful essayist. Encompassing book reviews, character studies, and thoughts on matters of politics and faith, here are Graham Greenes vivid firsthand impressions of Ho Chi Minh, Fidel Castro, Louis Mayer, and Kim Philby; seven essays on Henry James; and literary assessments of such writers as G.K. Chesterton, Beatrix Potter, Simone Weil, Hans Christian Andersen, Francis Parkman, Norman Douglas, and Somerset Maugham.
