

The Mother of Gods First Christmas: Dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mother

A beautiful court courtesan Victoria begs for the life of a Greek slave Polybius. King Herod pardons this slave. Herod forgets he ordered the deaths of Victorias parents years ago. Touched by Victorias brave compassion, Polybius decides to help Victoria escape Herods terror and settle his debt to her. Both are anxious to both escape and attend the birth of the Christ child. From court gossip and Herods wise men, they know how to find Jesus. Yet their journey is not an easy one. Will they make it in time to see the birth of Jesus? The other part of the story shows the turmoil facing both Mary and Joseph; the ghetto birth of Christ, their escape to Egypt, and their blessed childs brief childhood. After reading this you may come away with a new appreciation of poverty and giving birth to both children and your beliefs.
