

Fighting for your Life: Man-eater Bears

Amie Huguenard, the Grizzly Mans girlfriend died a thousand deaths, screaming her head off for Lord knows how long, but surely long enough for her to have escaped instead. Timothy Treadwell had just been dragged into the alders to be eaten alive, but she was a city girl who was clueless when it came to bear safety and how to survive an attack by one. She could have lived if she had only known what to do. Adventurer, author, and bush pilot, Tom Hron, whos spent a lifetime flying floatplanes and helicopters in Alaskas and Canadas most dangerous bear country, tells about real-life attacks and relates them to survival. He takes on the so-called experts and tells you what NOT to do. Blacks, browns, grizzlies, and polar bears--he covers them all in 240 spell-binding pages, and what you read may save your life.
