

Star Wars Dark Forces: Soldier For The Empire

The Star Wars saga continues with William Dietz's Dark Forces: Soldier for the Empire. The brilliantly told story brings to light the events that ripped apart the life of young Kyle Katarn, turning him into a man without friends or family, a man devoted only to vengeance. The Rebel Alliance employs Katarn, a freelance fighter, to fight their cause in numerous perilous situations. But Katarn is interested in fighting the Empire for his own reasons and has no allegiance to the Rebel cause. He doesn't mind fighting the fight of the Rebel Alliance, because it enables him to fight against the powerful Empire, for which he harbors a bitter hatred that is rooted deep inside him. Katarn's haunting past reveals that he was once in training to become an Imperial soldier, dedicated to the service of the Emperor. Written by John Whitman, based on a novel by William C. Dietz. Produced by Tom Voegeli. Directed by Peter Moore. Music by John Williams. Starring: Randal Berger as Kyle Katarn, Christopher Bloch as Rosco Ross, Virginia Burke as Courier, James Cada as Sergeant Major Hong, David Chase as Morgan Katarn, Mo Collins as Jan Ors, Patrick Coyle as Nathan Donar, Bob Davis as Skorg Jameson, and Lando Calrissian.
