

The Writing House (Kindle Single)

What I remember most is the touch on my face, and the way it was done: almost, despite everything, with a kind of love. A week-long writing course led by professional authors. Glorious midsummer weather and a beautiful, inspiring house deep in the country. What could be better for a group of unpublished writers determined to hone their skills and learn the secrets of their trade? But trade secrets come at a price. Sooner or later someone has to pay. Andrew Taylor is a crime and historical novelist, winner of the Cartier Diamond Dagger (for lifelong excellence in the genre) and the triple winner of the Historical Dagger. His books include the international bestseller, The American Boy (a Richard and Judy selection); the Roth Trilogy (filmed for TV as Fallen Angel); The Anatomy of Ghosts, shortlisted for the Theakstons Old Peculiar Crime Novel of the Year; The Scent of Death, The Silent Boy and, most recently, The Ashes of London. He reviews for the Spectator and elsewhere. He lives on the borders of England and Wales. For more information about Andrew Taylor and his books, see: www.andrew-taylor.co.uk.
