

Trapped in Limbo 3

Set in the current Chinese espionage scandal, the Secretary of Defense asks Kristen Lugar, a drone weapon designer in the Micro-Aviary drone program at Columbia University, to check on the illegal siphoning of military drone secrets to China. This dark thriller chronicles her visit to Bali, where the real and superstitious are constantly shifting and mixing. As she attempts to navigate around the idyllic Balinese landscape, she encounters a depth of evil that rocks her foundation. As the dark energies become unpleasant, the readers are kept on the edge of their seats desperately hoping that the inevitable is not what it seems.
