Contents In the Kitchen - Rebecca Buchanan Passetyme with Strange Company - Andrew Johnson Reload - John Underwood Gabriels Calling - Jennifer Cornet You Talk Real Funny-Like - B.T. Lowry Contributors John Underwood was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He began writing at the age of six, and believes that after twenty-five years he is almost good at it. He has been a contract laborer, bookstore clerk, restaurant manager, bartender, and a homeless person at different times in his life. His fiction has appeared in Shotgun Honey and Every Day Fiction. Currently John lives on Floridas Gulf Coast with his wife, Paola. Jennifer Cornet was born in Florida and raised in northern Virginia. She holds a bachelors degree in Ocean Engineering from Virginia Tech and works as a civil servant for the U.S. Navy designing DDG51 Destroyers. She applied her expertise in the field as a contributing author and editor of Guidelines for Marine Forensic Investigations (available through sname.org), a guidebook for professional and amateur investigators in the field of marine forensics. Shortly after the publication, Jennifer turned her focus to more creative endeavors, publishing her first novel in 2013. Her love for art played a pivotal role in writing Order of Earth, an urban fantasy involving tattoos which come to life. She is currently working on the follow up, Order of Fire, as well as developing a new series. When not writing, Jennifer is an avid hobby collector, filling her time painting, sewing, cooking, and gardening. She currently lives in Springfield, Virginia with her husband, Vladimir. She is the youngest of three sisters and the proud aunt of three amazing nieces. Jennifers parents encourage her in both her technical and creative aspirations, making her the engineer, artist, and author she is today. Andrew Johnson was born in Pennsylvania and currently lives in

Arizona. In addition to writing he is an avid photographer and woodcarver. Rebecca Buchanan is the editor of the Pagan literary ezine, Eternal Haunted Summer. She has been previously published in Bards and Sages Quarterly, Linguistic Erosion, Luna Station Quarterly, New Realm, The Future Fire, and other venues. B.T. Lowry grew up in Canada where the rocky mountains meet the great plains. Lowry spent most of their twenties in India, living in monasteries and studying bhakti-yoga. B.T. works with video, painting and storytelling and loves to see where the mediums meet.
