

Maiitso Rises: A Rex Chase Novel (Rex Chase Adventures) (Volume 1)

maitso: N. Pl. maitsoh: Navajo word for Wolf or large canine Pronunciation: Mah-eetso 1637: The Sonoran Desert: After years of peace, hunger has driven the fierce Apache tribe to attack their Navajo neighbors who are protected in a mythical display of firepower by The Great Chief. April 1937: The Sonoran Desert: Brilliant physicists have decoded the secrets of the desert, and technological advances unlike any the world has ever seen are now possible. April 1937: Boston, Massachusetts: Rex Chase pursues two doctoral degrees at Harvard University, is a standout baseball star, and has fallen in love. His lazy school days quickly come to an end, though, when sinister powers, bent on diabolical goals transform his life forever. Learning massive amounts of information in a short time has always been simple for Rex Chase, but his thresholds are pushed to extremes in the following days. A raucous global quest for answers exposes diabolical villains, untold wealth, and nearly unlimited power. Not only must he save his own life, and the lives of those he loves, but Chases adventures culminate in a powerful realization. Only one man stands between pure evil and the abject subjugation of mankind. That man is Rex Chase.
