Katrina Andrews was raised by her Aunt Martha and Uncle Alex in the State of Vermont. She was a gifted child, who was sent to Europe after graduation from High School, and before entering College. She graduated from Harvard Law School at age sixteen. She held Maser Degrees in several different fields, and was hired as the highest paying female employee by the Federal Government, high security. Katrina never had a personal, or social life with her only interest was on her career. Her dearest friend and constant companion was Doreen Stewart. Doreen was her personal secretary and her body guard which Katrina was totally unaware of. On a much needed trip to spend a long weekend with her Aunt and Uncle. When Katrina enters the house, she finds them shot in the head. Katrina has a chain of events that will cause her to run for her life. She encounters a chance meeting with a tall, good looking young man who becomes her knight in shining armor trying to keep her alive. Her life is the center of attention to every government agency, on earth, and her life is defended by a man who is determined to keep her alive. Nothing is as it seems.
