

The Rapture: A Sci-Fi Novel

The year is 2029. Damien Mitchell lives the same five years over and over, trapped in a time loop by the Syndicate, his former employers. His crime? It starts with the girl. It always starts - and ends - with the girl. Damien can't stop it, can never change it; he's trapped, forever at the mercy of those more powerful than him. Destined to live the same hellish sliver of time for eternity. Never aging, never dying, Damien can only hope to go insane. But then, one time through the loop, everything changes -- the girl breaks the chain by accident. And Damien, to save them both, must find a way out of the loop before his former employers notice the chain has been broken.
