

Tales from the Archives: Collection 2

Tales from the Archives are short stories set in the world of the Ministry of Peculiar Occurrences. They explore events mentioned in the novels, characters seen and unseen and may include novel teasers of things to come. This volume includes: Darkest before Darkwater by Tee Morris- A group of survivors from the airship Guy Fawkes find themselves washed ashore on an uncharted island. In their search for survival they uncover one mystery after another. The Shadows of Calcutta by Phil Rossi- Agent Robert Smith, on return from a mission in Nepal, is diverted to India where he is charged to find a missing agent. Alex Tanner had been investigating a series of thefts and murders holding the Ministry's attention, and now it falls on Agent Smith to find his missing comrade. Nights Plutonian Shore by Jack Mangan- In 1849 when a poet is murdered in the streets of Baltimore. The man behind the seemingly random murder manages to elude the law until in 1889 Agents Bruce Campbell and Brandon Hill track him down. The assassin, Mikael Scharnusser, gives the slip to the agents on revealing his talent and the madman's intentions to bring down the House of Usher. The Seven by P C Haring- Agent Brandon Hill is on assignment in South America, enjoying the local culture and women, when a mystery that could lead to El Dorado falls into his lap. Before the intrepid agent knows it, he is in the jungle uncovering a plot but the devilish Illuminati. He will need all his monkey knife fighting skills to survive this one.
