

The House by the Lake: A Post-Apocalyptic Novella

What happens when fiction becomes reality...? Shane Wallace pens survivalist novels for a living but he never dreamed he'd be living in a world that mirrors one of his stories. Vicious attacks up and down the East Coast have cost thousands of people their lives and driven even more from their homes to seek sanctuary. Shane, along with his pregnant wife and their teenage son, is forced to abandon the family's comfortable home and head to the wilderness to stay alive. Forging a new life in a small hunting cabin on the shores of Lake Graffenfield, Shane struggles to keep his family safe and secure. His small family doesn't know if he will rise to the occasion but, using the knowledge from his past written works, Shane is trying. Praise for Robert Paine: Action packed from page one...Must say I loved it, great read and hard to put down. You will not be sorry you purchased it. Really liked all the books in this collection, they kept me on the edge of my seat. I would definitely recommend this to anyone that enjoys this type of book.
