

Fido, Come!

A new and novel approach to dog obedience training. Most writers, dog trainers and dog obedience instructors base their dog training on the AKC obedience regulations. However, if the dog owner does not understand how these exercises can work for him, he will have little motivation to use or practice them. If they understand that a sit in front can keep the dog from jumping up on them or a proper stay command can keep their dog from running into the street and getting hit by a car then the instructors take on real meaning. Nominated as Best Book of the Year in its category by the Dog Writers Association
