

American Epidemic: Book 1- Surviving The Outbreak- An Ebola Prepper Survival Tale

Its been a week since deadly Ebola outbreak spread across several cities in the US. The advanced mega-strain of the disease has since infected thousands and counting, and officials are scrambling to respond an unprecedented national crisis. Federal, state, and local governments soon convene to set-up mass quarantine zones and travel bans to infected areas in a desperate attempt to keep the virus from spreading. Their efforts prove successful in containing the disease, but soon leave residents of infected areas isolated and at the mercy of famine, disease, and death. Greg Atkins, a man caught in the middle of the chaos, is a security alarm specialist from Carson City, Nevada, and he is prepared for the worst. With his friend, Veronica, an independent-minded woman who works at a book store, they attempt to survive the outbreak by hunkering down and securing themselves from outside threats. However, their resolve is soon put to the test in a series of dangerous deadly encounters. Dont miss the first episode in this thrilling virus survival saga.
