A millennium into the future. In a galaxy far from Earth. We were not prepared for the Terminal War. Billions of lives are at risk as enemy forces mass on the frontier of the Commonwealth. If the planet Terminus, the center of all the Commonwealths technology, falls, we will lose everything, and there will be no way back. The Axis Combines fleet is overwhelming in number, and their firepower is superior. Unless one man and his crew can save Terminus, the galaxy will never be the same again. They must find a way to give the Commonwealth an edge or well face complete annihilation. There is but one hope: Carson Mach and his motley crew of rogues on the starship Intrepid.
