

Secret of the Crystal IV - Forgotten Legacy (Time Travel Adventure)

Find out where it all began in this explosive 1st book of the second series. This is the stuff that legends are made of... Venture back 20,000 years, to a time where there was a planet called Astra. The Anunnaki were a proud people, but had come to hate one another. They lived their lives separated by the demarcation line established by the northern and southern factions. The threat of new wars began and escalated to the point which ultimately destroyed Astra by the massive seismo-acoustic weapon they had created. Their home exploded, sending its planetary fragments into the Roche limit of Mars that was in close orbit. The event shifted the planet Mars, and the impacting planetary fragments caused the Martian atmosphere to vent, rendering the planet uninhabitable.

??? Find out who will live and who will die in this epic quest for survival... Scroll up and grab a copy today.
